GREAT SNAKES.

IN JAVA THEY HAVE SNAKES ABOUT THE HOUSE AND INDOOR.

For the last 10 years there have been traditions of huge snakes in the interior of Java 100 feet long and as big around as a horse-hurdle, and our native hunters report these from time to time. Fifty years ago a man named Lut, a Bantamian, was with a party of natives and was supposed to have been killed by some snakes. He must have been a giant, for he had a sword of his own, weighing thirty pounds and carrying two-hundred bats, writes a correspondent of the Philadelphia Times.

About a year ago it happened in the English colony of Ceylon that a large snake was captured by a party of soldiers. He was soon found to be the same Ayers of the British army, and it was announced that they were after the big snakes. Captain Cole was a remarkable shot, and at 300 yards would knock over a parrot every time.

The next was in the Deccan, a strong chinkara, for fifty yards, was captured by a party of soldiers. He was soon found to be the same Ayers of the British army, and it was announced that they were after the big snakes. Captain Cole was a remarkable shot, and at 300 yards would knock over a parrot every time.
